

Kevin Violette, Managing Executive Vice President The OakBridge Team – RT ProExec

Kevin is a Managing Executive Vice President on The OakBridge Team within RT ProExec leading a team of 17 professionals specializing in the placement of Cyber and Professional Liability insurance products. Kevin joined RT Specialty in 2010. Prior to joining RT Specialty, Kevin spent five years at Chubb in various underwriting capacities largely concentrating on underwriting Miscellaneous Professional, Media Liability, Cyber Liability, Lawyers Professional, and Employed Lawyers coverage.

In each of his roles, Kevin has concentrated on the placement of cyber and professional liability for publicly traded, privately held and not-for-profit organizations across a diverse range of industries including technology, real estate, financial institutions, architects/engineers, construction, healthcare, and retail. He has guided several companies through the cyber and professional liability insurance procurement process.

Kevin's strength is his long-term relationships with key underwriters in the cyber and professional liability industry, which he continually leverages to provide his clients with superior results. Kevin received a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Management and Organization from Central Connecticut State University.

In his personal time, Kevin is an avid skier and golfer and enjoys spending time outdoors with his wife and two boys. Kevin plays an active role in his community participating in various faith-based community outreach initiatives.
